Charlie stood with his plump hands folded, looking into his mother s eyes so earnestly, that she could scarcely repress the tears, as she continued to answer question after question to the thoughtful child. CHAPTER XIV. Our morning glory had grown quite fast, and wag now (everal weeks old. She was a never failing source of pleasure to us, and our last kisses before going to school, and first ones upon returning, were bestowed upon her little velvet lip and cheek. Charlie was excessively fond of her, and when she was strong enough to hold his finger in her tiny hand, his delight knew no bounds. Whoever chanced to call in, he would at once step softly up to them, and inquire eagerly, wouldn t you like to see my baby, lady? and while encomiums of praise and admiration were being bestowed upon her, he would listen to it as proudly as if it were all intended for him. Hittie was a very handsome baby! every one that saw her remarked it; and some old ladies who called one day, shook their heads solemnly, and said in a low tone that the dear creetur wouldn t live...
