All the programmes have not yet been made up at the time of writing this notice, but the list of essayists includes some well known Chicago doctors who will read and demonstrate along practical lines. Aurand, Gordon, Collins, Davis, and Mitchell have promised to attend at either Clinton or Mattoon. There should be a goodly delegation from Chicago at each of these meetings. Lincoln and Rockford will have the largest attendance, as usual, and any Chicago doctor who may not have been present ever at either of these societies would be surprised at the strength and interest shown. This fall promises record attendance at these two places. Local secretaries should print on their programmes the schedules of trains in different directions, and especially those of Chicago trains. Announcements of the meetings should be sent to every homeopathic physician in Chicago. Some of these days Chicago doctors will find out that there is something doing outside of the Loop! Announcements sent out should be received in Chicago not later than one week before the respective meetings. Any secretary who does not happen to have Dr. Mitchell s list of Chicago doctors with their office addresses can obtain one free of charge on application to him. Clifford Mitchell, M. D., Chairman of the Organization Committee of the Illinois Homeopathic Medical Association. HAHNEMANN MEDICAL COLLEGE AND HOSPITAL. The opening exercises of the fifty-second annual session of Hahnemann Medical College of Chicago will begin...
