Dog Ear Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . My name is Pamela Harr. This is my story. This is my story of my experiences when my husband, Harvey Rattey, was in the last stages of Alzheimer s Disease, as told through email messages to friends and family. As clearly as I could I told how I felt while Harvey and I experienced our lives as the days and months passed. I will take you on a day-to-day journey with me as I struggle to balance life with other family members, with my husband s and my business, and daily activities, all the while seeking the best available care for my husband. While Alzheimer s is a tragic disease, my story is not tragic. Every day brought moments of intense love, times of joy, and unexpected humor. In seeking to understand how I could best care for my husband, I met new friends and helpers, strengthened my relationship with friends and family in our isolated eastern Montana community, and found a support group who will remain with me through the remainder of my life. I am aware that often my fears, my frustrations and my helplessness, my love, colored my observations and my perceptions. I mean no offense to anyone. I appreciate the gentleness and dedication of the caregivers who worked with us. I appreciate the care and support of my friends. Artist, speaker, writer, illustrator, physical therapist, rancher, cowgirl, wife and mother, Pamela Harr has led a rich and varied life. Pamela s background as well as her talents, have given her unique insight and strengths as she tackled the job of care-giver and advocate as her husband, Western Artist, Harvey Rattey, declined with Alzheimer s Disease. With candor and...
