STATE AS A GIANT WITH FEET OF CLAY

Peter Lang AG. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, State as a Giant with Feet of Clay, Jan Kysela, Many contemporary states, even the European ones, resemble a giant with feet of clay. They tend to be greater in terms of the scope of governance, rather than in terms of their territory or population. Since they are great, they are also costly, though often very limited in various respects. One perilous alternative is the state-giant of Thomas Hobbes. But there...
