And there I was, sitting in the sanctuary and filled with a wholeheartedly humbled spirit to serve and glorify the Lord Jesus Christ when He spoke to me saying Your assignment is to write. The command had immediately followed a vision of me descending the steps just below the choir loft. Wow, that's me standing there. I'll be a motivational speaker. and so I thought! A number of months later and in light of my understated revelation, the Lord has continued to order my steps and to demonstrate his presence in my life as God has bestowed the gifts of experience and wisdom. Through God's grace and the Lord's guidance I now share Thirty Moments of Vision. So tune in and stay tuned as the moments unfold to fortify your understanding of a Savior-centric focus. Born in Baltimore, Maryland Nelson E. Allen has held leadership positions in such organizations as the Boy Scouts, civic groups, fraternal orders, lay ministries and, occupational assignments. His professional career has ranged from retail to the private sector to civil service. Raised with the knowledge of Jesus Christ, several years ago he recommitted...
