This is a fascinating historical epic, an intriguing tale of torrid sex, volatile colonial tensions, great vision, and incredible courage. It is the compelling and evocative story of a man's compulsive and dangerous quest to follow his heart. Bold, brave, golden-hearted and endearingly steadfast, Chidebem repeatedly defied the odds as he wound through a most extraordinary life, growing to become one of the greatest men to live, southeast of the Niger River. Or will he follow his conscience, as usual, and take the boldest and most daring steps in his colourful life? His decisions will have profound and far-reaching consequences for himself, his beloved people and countless others. ACTION ADVENTURE: Like something from a nightmare, the beast drew back his great head, growled...
