LVX Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 110 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. There is, beneath the surface of our lives, a greater significance, even hints of a greater reality. Some call this idea illumination; others, illusion. This is the world in which the stories of Out of the Alley and Other Stories are placed. Here the reader will find tales of deep despair and brilliant hope—but not always in the same story. Most of these stories take place in Manhattan, a place of chaotic energy, both creative and destructive. One character explores grimy alleys full of the discarded pieces of two lives. Elsewhere, a tortured man in crisis recreates the Tabernacle built by Moses out of abandoned furniture and bed sheets. A penny-ante cryptographer despairs of losing his sight in Bellevue Hospital, while an advertising executive receives advice in Central Park from a gondolier who may not be entirely real. Delinquent fathers, performance artists, punk rockers, ritual magicians, and living gods: these are some of the characters in this debut collection of nine short stories by Mark Koltko-Rivera. Each story is illustrated in black and white, and the collection begins with maps showing locations mentioned in the stories. Several of these stories have appeared in online literary magazines. The stories include: . Spiritual Practice . The Cryptographer . Out of the Alley . Art Form . The Gondolier of Bethesda Landing . The Death of Mozart . The Blueprints . The Lines . The Most Holy Place An edition of this book with full-color illustrations is also available. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
