Heinemann USA. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Comprehension Through Conversation: The Power of Purposeful Talk in the Reading Workshop, Maria Nichols, Richard L Allington, "Maria Nichols offers not possible lessons but full descriptions of actual lessons. Here you'll find no ivory-tower examples of what might be, but examples of what is already available in many classrooms. These are classrooms of the sort that we hope our children and grandchildren are lucky enough to encounter - not once in a while but routinely. " - Richard L. Allington "To say this is an exceptional book about teaching comprehension would be to trivialize it. With superb examples and flawless logic Nichols demonstrates how to orchestrate conversations that build literate habits of mind. " - Peter H. Johnston, author of "Choice Words" "Comprehension Through Conversation captures the power and essence of purposeful, engaging instruction.and reminds us of the real purpose for comprehension instruction: to understand the deeper issues in texts and discuss these ideas to construct meaning. " - Nancy L. Akhavan author of "How to Align Literacy Instruction and Standards" When it comes to reading comprehension, talk isn't cheap, it's a valuable way to help children think, articulate their opinions about a text, and get the most from their reading experiences. "Comprehension Through Conversation" is a practical guide to comprehension, conversation, and collaboration. Maria Nichols invites you to listen in on reading workshops where purposeful book talk leads students to deeper understandings of fiction, nonfiction, and the world beyond. Moving forward from the widely understood concept that exchanging ideas builds students' comprehension, Nichols shows you specific ways to use conversation as a scaffolding that bridges prior knowledge to more advanced reading skills and techniques as well as to big ideas such as themes. Her useful ideas for conversations begin...
