Paperback. Condition: New. 132 pages. A novella that celebrates one day and the encounter of two great storytellers. Two people who find that an intimate relationship with wild Nature can revolutionize their lives. I met someone out there. He was no angel or prophet. I dont think he was. He became my teacher, my rabbi, as no other rabbi. His name is John, and he comes from a green, rocky island, laced with rivers and lakeslochs he calls themfar across the Great Sea. He taught me to learn from the land, from the earth. He got me to swim again! Then, he left me with a sadness I hadnt felt since father was taken. What happened to the young Jesus before he matured and became the inspiration for one of the great religions of the world This book presents one possibility: that Jesus of Palestine met at least one person who became his environmental counselor, his mentor in relationship with the earth, the land, the natural world of a small patch of rough and rocky ground called Judea-Israel. What better figure from history to place in this role than the reverently unbound Scottish botanist, geologist, naturalist and wise spiritual explorer, John MuirWhatever your beliefs or images may be, the adventures and conversations of Jesus and John will make you smile, reflect and wonder. Their experiences in Nature may draw you out into your own wilderness where the voice of each might still be calling. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
