Although I have only known Cathy a short time, she has left an indelible impression in my mind and in my heart. I have been fortunate enough to stand alongside her and hear her story and witness the transformation that appears in the eyes of those listening. Sharing such a personal story takes great courage. Cathy s journey captured through poetry and pictures gives us an intimate glimpse into the delicate balance of living and the hope that exists because of it. -Tana Nash, Coordinator, Waterloo Region Suicide Prevention Council.
