

The Serpent Grail: The Truth Behind the Holy Grail, the Philosopher's Stone and

By Gardiner, Philip. Osborn, Gary, Contributor.

Watkins. 1 Cloth(s), 2005. hard. Book Condition: New. Tracing serpent-worship in various cultures over thousands of years, this book explores its roots in early Christianity, Buddhism, Hinduism, Paganism, Egyptology, and ancient Sumeria and Africa. Philip Gardiner and Gary Osborn find that the central rite of the snake cult was to mix venom with blood in a ceremonial bowl or grail to produce a healing elixir that, according to some studies, boosts the immune system. The authors also demonstrate how some of the world's great mysteries are linked to this practice, including the structure of Egyptian pyramids and South American temples, the secret of the philosopher's stone, the meaning of the Holy Grail, and the lost city of Atlantis. 336.
