THE CONNOISSEUR VOLUME 15

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 128 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.3in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1906 edition. Excerpt: . . . The Woman in White, done in 1871 as a poster for Wilkie Collins dramatised novel, 85 in. by 51 in. , 32 gns. ; and a picture by L. B. Hurt, Leaving the Hills, 30 in. by 50 in. , 120 gns. The extraordinary collection of leaves taken from early printed books, to which reference was made last month, was formed by Mr. Von Holtorp, who for half a century has been accumulating and arranging specimen pages of nearly all the old printers of Germany, France, Italy, England, the Netherlands and Spain, Xylographic illustrations, Colophons, Devices, Portraits, Woodcuts by old masters, and other memorials of the printed book, which he happened to come across during the course of his very protracted search. Each specimen was mounted on thick cardboard and arranged in chronological order, with notes of identification, so that it was possible to trace, as from a birds eye view, the progress of printing in each particular town represented. The auctioneers divided the collection into twenty distinct lots, and the total amount realised was, 742 15s. Such is a precise and cold-blooded report of the sale of this extensive assortment of relics. Difficult and perhaps impossible to form again, and undoubtedly of high educational value, there is nevertheless something about this as about all collections of the kind which does not commend itself as a general rule to the bookman of the twentieth century. Mr. Holtorp collected the material for his memorial wisely...
