Brady of Sitka, Alaska, who gave a most interesting description of present conditions among the native people there, showing the adverse effect upon their lives of some of the legislation of late years, particularly instancing the regulations as to deer-hunting, fisheries, etc. Mrs. Brady paid a tribute to the fine patriotism of these people as shown during the war, and also to their personal loyalty to herself and Governor Brady at the time of the death of the latter. She bespoke for them not financial aid but a wise application of the Federal laws so closely affecting their vital interests, urging also in their behalf the same developments of the spirit of social service which have been found so essential and so effective elsewhere. The thanks of the meeting were tendered the speaker for her informing and stimulating address. Mrs. Clark read a letter from Mr. Burroughs, describing the Christmas festival at Rocky Boy Mission, and expressing much gratitude for the gifts received. --L. D. A. An Appreciation. The following letter was received recently from an old subscriber, who for many years has done a large amount of voluntary work for Indian welfare. --ED. I have taken The Indians Friend since 1908, and it is a real inspiration This publication cheers the Indian people in their Christian progress. It gives the bright side of Indian life. May its printed pages ever prove a blessing to the spiritual,...
