DOOR-TO-DOOR MINISTRY THE EASY WAY TO MAKE FRIENDS FOR YOUR CHURCH

George H. Martin. Paperback. Condition: New. 130 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Door-to-Door Ministry can be an easy way to make friends for your church as you'll discover in the story that is told by George Martin who knocked on thousands of doors while starting a new church. He learned the power of simply inviting people (with a focus on those who didn't have a church). Emphasizing a friendly approach meant offering people the opportunity to come and see. His approach was based on the relationships and friendships he formed as we went door-to-door. This book, though, has so much more. It includes all the ways in which Martin learned to create a guest-friendly church that is truly hospitable. In addition he discovered many ways to literally put the church on the map! You'll find a great deal here suggesting ways for your church to be more visible and most important of all, to have a positive welcoming reputation in your community. An insightful part of this book includes the Biblical reflection which gives a unique and fresh interpretation of the command of Jesus as he sent his disciples out two-by-two. Martin wondered why they were told to find just a single house in the town to which they were sent. The scripture says it was a house from which they could do ministry. His biblical study led to Martin's unique relational approach to this ministry. The book includes many ideas for inviting members of a church to share in this ministry. One chapter is about ways to help train people to go out to a neighborhood. There is a whole chapter on creating and using a door-hanger as a way to let people know about your church, even if you just leave the information at their door. Unique to...
