Xlibris Corporation, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.From the East Room of the White House to the mountains of Afghanistan, this book is filled with insightful stories and knowledge. One of the biggest obstacles that a family can experience is separation. During their years of service in the military, author Robert F. Vadnais, MS, PHR and his wife have had their share of challenges. Despite the distance, they still managed a happy family. How do they do it? The first section consists of four chapters that concentrate on marriage, friendship, romance, and family finances. Ideas on how to have fun and excitement in a marriage are also found in these pages. In the next section, Vadnais discusses the importance of a solid financial base and its variables, such as insurance, retirement plans, and real estate. The final section expresses ideas on family planning, elder care, and providing stability and consistency to a child's daily routine.
