

Augustine: Conversions to Confessions

By Lane Fox, Robin.

Basic Books. 1 Cloth(s), 2015. hard. Book Condition: New. (A New York Times Book Review Editor's Choice) Saint Augustine is one of the most influential figures in all of Christianityhis Confessions, a vivid description of his journey toward conversion and baptism, still serves as a model of spirituality for Christians around the worldyet his path to sainthood was by no means assured. Born in 354 to a pagan father and a Christian mother, Augustine spent the first 30 years of his life struggling to understand the nature of God and his world. He learned about Christianity as a child but was never baptized, choosing instead to immerse himself in the studies of rhetoric, Manicheanism, and then Neoplatonism, all the while indulging in a life of lust and greed. The author of The Classical World and Alexander the Great, Robin Lane Fox here re-creates Augustine's early life with unparalleled insight, showing how his quest for knowledge and faith finally brought him to Christianity and a life of celibacy. "This narrative of the first half of Augustine's life conjures the intellectual and social milieu of the late Roman Empire with a Proustian relish for detail."NYTBR" This biography of the Church Father displays an...
