

Cork: Its Origin And Industrial Uses (Paperback)

By Gilbert Erwin Stecher

Read Books, United Kingdom, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .PREFACE THIS monograph is not an attempt to put before the reading public a scientific exposition of the merits and qualities of the Quercus Suber or Quercus Liber Linneus, and carry it up into the heights of learning where none but the learned may go but to set forth in as concise a manner as possible, the plain story of the corkwood stopper so well known to all. The corkwood as seen in the stopper and in many other articles of trade, has long been of service to man, and remained unnoticed in journals of science, but for a word here and there and in trying to acquaint myself with its generalities, found it most difficult to get even these. This rather impressed me as being singular, a material so largely used and so little to its credit, in literature, that I pressed my investigations only to find that the farther I searched the less I found. The few facts gleaned were of interest, and it occurred to me to put them together in some readable form, for future reference. But...
