(cheers) And the people who did this were loud mouthed Liberals. (laughter and cheers.) If the Government improve the militia system, they will deserve the thanks of every loyal man in the country; but upon the loyalty of the people themselves must depend the success of out militia system, and very little they can do will give a better system than that cf to-day. (cheers) These are the questions - the policy - all of them questions dealt with by the old Government - which these men have taken up and offer us. Last of all we have the only matter upon which there is difference between us - the question of the Pacific Railway. You will all admit the policy of completing the Pacific Railway. It is an important thing for the country. But, gentlemen, in deviating from the policy of the old Government in the manner preposed, Ministers are not making a change which will commend itself to the judgment of the people of Canada. So much for politics in Canada during the existence of the Liberal Conservative Government. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
