Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Greed for money is another evil, next to addiction, that is prevailing in our society. I have met many people who do not hesitate to indulge in any evil activities, just for a few bucks. Some may have succeeded to richness. But at one point of time they will realize that money is not everything. They then repents on their deeds and search for a way to clear themselves out from the bad name and all the evils associated with them. This is a story of a rich business man who wants to ward off the evils he had acquired during the process of making big money. He wants a way out, but still adheres to his evil means to attain his goal. He is yet to realize that evils generated once cannot be eliminated.
