

Arthur in Shadow and Sunshine (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Kate Cope Webb

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Arthur in Shadow and Sunshine As he started off up the road, he decided to play, as he Often did with Frank, that he was a circus boy, without father or mother or any one belonging to him. He played that he had been stolen by a circus man, who treated him very cruelly, and he was now running away. He called himself Charley May lard, the name of a minstrel he had lately seen and greatly admired. Arthur strolled along the road for some distance, at last coming to a point from which he could see the railroad depot, a place always full of interest to him. He concluded to go on far enough to watch the cars as they passed. A train came puffing up just as he reached the platform. It suddenly oc curred to Arthur that it would be a fine thing to go to the city and meet his papa. He knew where his father s Office was, and hoped he would call him a real brave boy to have come all the way by himself....
