GODLESS AND A GOOD LIFE: THINKING THE UNTHINKABLE

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Cynthia Sue Larson and Patricia Zerman got it when they read the book. I am no longer defensive about atheism as I realized how deeply rooted it is in my emotional life and my limbic brain. I have observed that this is what everyone does. We are not basically logical, rational beings, but are ruled more by what we feel in our bodies. From childish arguments that sound like this - You re stupid! - No, You re stupid - which continues with no additional changes until one gives up - to arguments between loved ones and the devastating discussions between representatives of nations or political or religious leaders that are emotionally based so NO compromises are possible. I love my wife, children, and grandchildren more than anyone or anything. Yet, they are all believers in God and some...
