Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Jack Jones is an exceptionally intelligent fourteen year old who suffers from boredom and isolation at his public school. After a letter of acceptance comes from the prestigious Highborn Academy, Jack encounters a new world where he develops his talents for both academics and comedy, while growing emotionally through facing the challenges that naturally accompany friendship, love, family, and being part of a community. Suddenly, Jack is amongst his intellectual equals, studying subjects that interest him. He s got a roommate who wants to befriend him, a scholastic competition to study for, and even a girl he can t stop thinking about-but he s convinced that none of them will like him for himself. Jack changes his entire life and personality around in an effort to make himself more likable and cool. Jack s social life gradually takes a turn for the better, but he s about to learn that if he can t accept himself for who he is, neither will anyone else.
