Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A revelation of courage that will shine light on the very fiber of the society in which we live. It challenges the very soul of questionable decision making and surviving the aftermath. The resurrection of perseverance and strength. Her Real Life Stories about her Truths, her Vulnerabilities and her Strengths. After being told the truth that the father she loves and admires was not her biological father, she started feeling like her perfect little family unit was not so perfect after all. Because of her feelings of betrayal, hurt and deceit she ran away from home where she was vulnerable to the streets. She was molested and raped and taken advantage of, but she stayed in silence and told no one. She married at a very young age and she went through several other marriages after that and in those marriages she either dealt with domestic, violence, adulterers, drug users, being rapped all over again, molesters and even death. But she fought through each marriage, trying to make it work until she just couldn t fight any more. Because she did not want to accept the reality of another failed marriage. Her strengths came from her relationship and commitment to God and the power of her prayers to him. From her parents who prayed intercessory prayers for her every morning. From her six children who stood by her side and loved her unconditionally through the storm and rain. And her grandchildren who taught her a whole new level of love. Through all life s truths, her father not being who she was told he was or who she thought he was. The vulnerabilities, abuse, rape, and failed marriages. God answered her...
