Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Within the Purdah: Also in the Zenana Homes of Indian Princes, and Heroes and Heroines of Zion Being the Personal Observations of a Medical, Missionary in India Dear friends, I know I have done a very unfashionable thing in harrowing up your feelings by the recital of some heartrending facts. Facts, indeed, they are, for each particular case which I have cited is a real case. In every instance I have had some particular patient in mind, and have given you the exact details and history of that particular patient; and yet each of these particular patients is but a sample of many similar cases such as I treated again and again during my dispensary life. I know that returned missionaries love to cite instances of natives coming from distant villages to the mission inquiring the way of salvation. They love to describe revival efforts in country towns, where, perhaps, the whole village has been brought to the foot of the cross. All this can be done. All this is true. The cause of God is making wonderful strides in that strange, dark land. I, too, could tell of similar cases of conversions from darkest heathendom; even of Hindu priests who have left all and chosen affliction with the people of God rather than to continue the worship of idols; but, dear friends, I have chosen to tell you these more unpleasant facts. I have done it deliberately and with malice aforethought. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
