Archibald Maclay, D.D: An Eminent Minister of the Baptist Church for More, Than Half a Century; 1776-1860 Some angel guide my pencil, while I draw, What nothing else than angel can excell, A man on earth devoted to the skies, With aspect mild, and elevated eye. Behold him seated on a mount serene, Above the fogs of sense, and passion s storm; All the black cares and tumults of this life, Like harmless thunders breaking at his feet, Excite his pity, not impair his peace. Perhaps this book might not inappropriately be called Fifty Years Reminiscences of Baptist ministry, instead of the life of the Rev. Archibald Maclay, for the threads of his history are so interwoven with the recital of the rise and growth of the Baptists in this country, that the two are inseparable. Appleton s Encyclopedia says of him that, he was a speaker and writer of great power, a Pastor of one church about thirty consecutive years, now known as the Tabernacle Baptist Church in Second Avenue and who contributed largely, as one of the early pioneers of that denomination, to promote its numbers and extend its bounds.
