Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This suspense filled action adventure story finds our hero, Steven Cross, a veteran CIA spy, assigned a simple task to assassinate an Italian mobster. He soon finds himself in the middle of a ruthless worldwide cartel that deals in drugs, illegal arms, murder and anything else that turns a profit. His own CIA handler abandons Cross and he finds himself on the run with no one to trust. Using his cunning skills as a brilliant spy Cross lures a coincidental young Italian beauty to his aid - so he thought. It was not long before he joined forces with his new Italian connections to battle this coldblooded scourge of mobsters and terrorists around the globe. While combating with the enemy he finds himself betrayed by comrades in his own camp. He calls upon his former allies from the Special Forces and some of his old CIA operatives to assist him in an attempt to stomp out the evils he has encountered. Even as his mission seems to go forward, he continues to find traitors at high levels of his and other governments. Old contacts and friends continue to betray his efforts. The flawed operation extends Cross and his team too thin. From the jungles of Central America to the cities of Europe, he and his team of three beautiful women are in constant danger. The brutality they all endure makes Cross doubt his ability to lead. The loyalty of his team reassures him of his strengths to continue and thwart the enemy. However, in this constant life and death struggle, there is always time for romance. The women in his world work hard, play hard, and kill harder. The...
