

Embracing Reality: A Directive for Achieving Sustainability in the Twenty-First Century (Paperback)

By Jeb Taylor

BookBaby, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Civilization is on the brink of collapse, and humankind's exploitive behavior brought it here. Embracing Reality is a frank discussion about how this happened, and what we must do in order to reverse this terrifying trend and establish sustainability. In personal correspondence with renowned Canadian environmentalist Farley Mowat regarding the future prospects of humankind, he stated: Homo sapiens is a lost cause . . . the sooner we become extinct, the better the prospects are for the ongoing survival and evolution of animate creation. Farley devoted much of his life to raising public awareness and encouraging sustainable behavior--so the fact that he gave up on us as a species should be regarded as an alarming indication that we are not only severely deluded and wantonly exploitive, but that we maintain a perverse determination to remain so. Our exploitive behavior is severely diminishing Earth's biota and resources--to the degree that if we do not raise our awareness and adopt sustainable behavior in the very near future, we will exhaust Earth's capacity to support us, and civilization will collapse. But collapse does not have to be our destiny--at...
