Excerpt from On the Supposed Uncertainty in Medical Science, and on the Relation Between Diseases and Their Remedial Agents: Being the Address in Medicine Read at the Fourth Annual Meeting of the Bengal Branch of the British Medical Association, Held on the 16th February, 1867 The contemptuous allusion to homoeopathy in the speech referred to met the eye of the late Babu Rajinder Dutt, the most distinguished among the few laymen who had taken up the cause of the despised and the persecuted system. He, a millionaire, out of pure disinterestedness, had in his earlier career, been one of the chief instruments in bringing into favor the European allopathic system. And with that disinterestedness associated with an acute discernment, he saw the superiority of homoeopathy over the prevalent systems of medicine. He took up its cause with his usual earnestness and did his best to diffuse its blessings among his fellow-citizens of Calcutta. By effecting cures some of which were the most brilliant in the annals of homoeopathy in India, he had succeeded in making converts of some highly intelligent...
