

DOWNLOADREAD ONLINE
[6.28 MB]

Taken without consent

By Stephen Maison

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 154 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. I was born in the 1960s in Sheffield England. I am one of four sons born to my late mother Linda Lestra Germima O'Neil who sadly passed away in 1978 and father Stephen Orlando Maison. My early years were spent in Sheffield living with my parents and brothers. Things changed rapidly for us after our mother left to begin nurse training in Derby. We, being myself and my three brothers aged four, three, two and one were left in the care of our father who worked as a shot blaster, working twelve hour shifts. A newspaper clipping reported that we were left alone at home while our father went to work. One morning having been left on our own the home was raided by the NPSCC and the police, my siblings and I were taken into care. During our time in care my brothers and I were subjected to verbal and physical abuse from those who were supposed to be caring for us which we reported to our fathers siblings when they visited. After some time in the childrens home...

Reviews

The ebook is fantastic and great. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I am just effortlessly could possibly get a enjoyment of looking at a created ebook.

-- Mr. Kevin Herzog

If you need to adding benefit, a must buy book. It can be writter in straightforward words and phrases and never difficult to understand. I realized this ebook from my dad and i advised this ebook to learn.

-- Zula Hayes