This sale took place in 1869, and the redemption in 1870. The revenue law of 1869, for the redemption of lands sold for taxes, prescribes that the owner may, at any time within two years, redeem the same upon payment of one hundred per centum penalty. The revenue law of 1868 provkles for such redemptions within one year by paying twenty-five per centum penalty. The levy of the taxes for which the land was sold was made pursuant to the law of 1868, and the act of 1869, section 159, provides That an act to assess and collect taxes and for other purposes, approved July 23, 1868, and all acts supplemental thereto, are hereby repealed, but shall remain in full force and effect for the purpose of making the collection of taxes for the year 1868. The collection of the tax therefore,...
