THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY: VOL 1 (PAPERBACK)

Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group Inc, United States, 1997. Paperback. Condition: New. Reissue. Language: English . Brand New Book. An exciting perspective on outstanding American writing in two media--print and film The stories collected here were chosen for adaptation and inclusion in a series of films sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities, bringing together the works of America s master writers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Parker Adderson, Philosopher by Ambrose Bierce A wry, wisecracking Civil War spy is awaiting execution, but his last interrogation by a Confederate general leads to events neither could foresee. Ambrose Bierce uses his favorite device of reversal of character to create this natural vehicle for a haunting film about physical and spiritual violence. Berenice Bobs Her Hair by F. Scott Fitzgerald Advice on how to become popular with young men backfires for two young women in a story written in the Jazz Age, but is immediately familiar as a right-on-target study of modern flirting, dating, and relationships. Almos a Man by Richard Wright When David, a black farm laborer of seventeen, is ridiculed because he wants to be treated like a man, he decides that owning a gun will gain him the respect he seeks in this deeply moving story by one of America s greatest writers. And six more superb stories by Sherwood Anderson, Stephen Crane, Ernest Hemingway, Henry James, Flannery O Connor, and John Updike, presented with their award-winning film adaptations.
