Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This gentle story is set in the tiny village of Tintagel in Cornwall, UK and is about two children in the same class at school, Grace and Gray. They are both keen young gardeners who find friendship through their shared interest. suitable for 4 years and over. About the layout of this book: I am a retired NHS orthoptist; that is a person who treats among other conditions, children who, even with normal vision, have problems with their eyes that make it difficult to read comfortably and therefore find it harder to learn to read. I have published this story in larger print and narrower lines, which makes it easier for the young reader to move onto the next line. In all, it should make reading a more enjoyable experience. Look out for another one of my stories with the same layout; The Shoes that Blew They are my Little Cream Books.
