Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Music of Gilbert Artman Urban Sax The new Eurock book tells a story about music, which became a youthful passion for me very early in life. Officially, Eurock began in 1971 as a radio program featuring Experimental European Rock. What followed was a lifelong adventure into the weird and wonderful world of musical innovation. I had no idea in the beginning that a world filled with far away artists would open up for me and some of the new friends partners I made all around the globe would still be with me in my 68th year. A trip to Europe in 2015 took me to France. In Paris, I met some of today s most innovative creators of art and music. I saw historic places, met people and experienced a culture that opened my eyes. Outside the small places we inhabit in our daily lives, there exists people filled with a warmth of human spirit wellspring of creativity that transcends the mindset of self-gratification and absorption present today in my homeland. Previous Eurock books have dealt extensively with the...
