

The Pilgrimage of the Phoenix (Paperback)

By Professor of European Politics Michael Smith

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Four months after the Classtoria returns with Phoenix to the Hyperion sun system and the planet Darlon, Captain Terry Dankin is assigned his first research mission. But what was supposed to be a simple mission to explore biological and geological aspects of the planet Varasay, the Phoenix runs headlong into an ancient enemy and planetary harvesters, the Parakon. The same enemy that destroyed Captain Darlon's homeworld of Shaleen over twelve hundred years ago. Bent on harvesting planetary resources to strengthen their vast empire in order to protect a mysterious blue, hyper-dwarf star, the Parakon set their sites on Phoenix. Captain Dankin, with the aide of Captain Narell aboard the Heraway, fight off a Parakon scout ship, but then are suddenly faced with the massive and powerful mothership, the Kloose. Despite being greatly outgunned and outsized, Captain Dankin and his crew aboard the Phoenix must insure the Kloose is destroyed before the Parakon find, and harvest, his new home, Darlon.
