We have read them with great interest and enjoyment; - not with satisfaction; that is more than we can say. Lord Mahon is a better historical writer than either of the eminent persons who have treated any portion of English history between the Revolution of 1688 and the accession of George the Third. I feel, he says, in one of his earlier volumes, that to state any fact without sufficient authority, or to draw any character without thorough conviction, implies not merely literary failure, but moral guilt. Of any such unfair intention I hope the reader may acquit me - I am sure I can acquit myself. Of all such unfair intention we cordially acquit his Lordship.
