Addiction to alcohol and drugs took away what mattered most in this mother s life and a future once promising and bright came to an abrupt halt as addiction forced her into seclusion. Desiring to escape the entrapment of her addiction, little did she know the road to sobriety would be full of dead ends and unexpected roadblocks. Though her addiction seemed inescapable, she would soon find that there was only one true way of escape-a way that would supply her with everlasting life. Before the deadly drop-off could do her in, her cry for help was heard and a valuable opportunity arose. God placed this woman in the perfect hands so she could learn to live again. Discovering her identity in Christ, she became anonymous no more. This is the inspiring, heart-felt story of one mother s faith-filled journey through addiction, recovery, and redemption.
