Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .David James Zoppi is an author and writer of stories, short-stories and screenplays, and has written several screenplays, musical compositions and scores. David is also an award winning musician and song writer, and has received the Liberace Keyboard Entertainer Search award for the New England region, and the Louis Armstrong Jazz award. This collection of science fiction short stories includes the following: MIGRATION EARTH - Countless centuries ago, Mars was a world very much like the planet earth. Mars had lush green lands, oceans, rivers and alien life, a race of aliens with the faces of humans and elongated skulls. The inhabitants of mars seeded the earth and watched the seeds of human civilizations take hold. Then, teachers were sent from mars on flying disks to live among the people of the earth and to teach them. When asteroids destroyed the planet Mars, the inhabitants migrated to the earth only to discover that a great rebellion against those they brought to teach and live among the people had taken place. Those who left the planet mars went to the south polar region of the earth and lived as subterranean dwellers in the earth. For years their existence was a secret until they were discovered. An agreement was made between the Governments of the Earth and the alien subterranean inhabitants of the earth. The agreement stated that their existence would not be kept secret in exchange for alien technology. It was not until the year 2014 that a geological survey team of scientists lead by Professor Paul Drake would rediscover that which had been kept secret for so many years when the aliens destroyed a Royal British Naval vessel in the same vicinity of...
