S. E. McKenzie Productions, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Cultural Genocide is S.E. McKenzie s nineteenth epic poem which explores what could have been and who we could have been. Cultures often have entry points. We are conditioned from birth to adapt into a culture so that one s culture often becomes our second nature. Too often cultures clash creating culture shock between people who often have good intentions but have no entry point designed to integrate without manufacturing consent to give up one s identity in order to belong. GLUE is S.E. McKenzie s twentieth epic poem which explores the power of GLUE . SPY is S.E. McKenzie s twenty-first epic poetic fiction, which explores the power to create the luck one might need to stay unbroken during times of conflicting interests and polarization while the master class flies overhead.
