CLIMATE CHANGE IN WORLD POLITICS (ENERGY, CLIMATE AND THE ENVIRONMENT)

Palgrave Macmillan. Paperback Condition: New. 208 pages. John Vogler examines the international politics of climate change, with a focus on the United Nations Framework Convention (UNFCCC). He considers how the international system treats the problem of climate change, analysing the ways in which this has been defined by the international community and the interests and alignments of state governments. Why are relatively obvious solutions avoided How is the seemingly irrational behaviour of state governments to be explained What are the...
