Wolfsinger Pub, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . If you've gained your knowledge of the Wild West from Hollywood and history textbooks, your image of the Western frontier is simple and clear: White men winning the West and saving helpless white future wives from outlaws or hostile Indians or Mexican banditos. You won't find that here. Here: U.S. Marshal Frederick Douglass fights invaders from outer space. A Navajo girl must thwart the god who threatens all she holds dear. A Hasidic high planes drifter faces New World bandits and Old Testament demons. A Catholic priest contends with a magic-wielding half-breed--or is she an indigenous spirit?--as the fate of the Canadian Metis province of Assiniboia hangs in the balance. Outcast women enter the Southwestern desert to die, or win their lady loves and great mecha steeds. A lost gunman may find himself in a Chinese gold miner's maze of mist and magic. Roving spirits and Civil War survivors and runaway factory slaves lose or find family or love in uncanny new guises. Hoboes rob a train of myth and dream. An Eastern city slicker may outsmart only himself in a contest with Old West magic. A black homesteader fights fae in defense of land and family. A werewolf-hunting frontier shapeshifter shatters every expectation. Steampunk airships may unite West and East--or leave them forever apart. The ascendant Aztec face endless destruction if the god of war triumphs. The South will rise again at the Alamo--if it can gain eerie otherworldly assistance. This anthology, like its predecessor, Lost Trails: Volume One, exists to recognize and celebrate the diverse realities of the historical West with excellent and entertaining Weird West stories. Welcome to the Weird West more realistic than many a mundane Western!...
