Scofield The boy s father and mother were true Chris tians, Old-fashioned believers. His father read the Bible to him and encouraged him to read it for himself. The father was not instructed in the full range of Biblical truth, but he lived very much in the Book of Psalms, and loved David greatly. And the boy read his Bible les sons, like any other boy in a respectable Chris tian family; but he did not dream that the Bible was a book to be studied like other books, and he gave it little attention. Yet what a prepara tion he was getting, all unconsciously, in mental habits of thoroughness and of verification and of first-hand study, all of which make for scholar ship, for the producing, years later, of the Refer ence Bible for which hundreds of thousands now love and honor his name! Was the mother an in?uence in the life of this boy and man? She died soon after his birth died as a result of bringing him into the world. Perhaps...
