On My Master s Table is a compilation of 50 poems, self-reflection and examination, and Bible study including Digging Deeper, Digging Deeper Still, and To the Bottom of the Well for one study concerning marriage. The reader will take a journey through many issues of life, including addictions, lusts of the flesh and eyes, the pride of life, power, sex, money, modern day Pharisees, spiritual warfare, the power of the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ s work on the cross, redemption and discipleship, which is the primary reason this book was written. The journey will continue with the ultimate question we all face daily - whom are we going to serve? Will it be the Lord Jesus, also known as God, or will it be our original father Satan, the enemy of our souls? The reality is not everyone will serve Jesus and some poems reflect that choice. Choosing life is a daily decision and a personal choice that comes through the power of the cross and the willingness to follow Jesus Christ. One of the things that makes On My Master s Table unique is that the God-given vision for this book is included thereby making it a perfect choice for those who want to do missions, evangelism, and make disciples of Jesus Christ as the Lord commands us to do in the Great Commission. There are many gifts and talents that God has placed in us and On My Master s Table is a tool that can be used by God to stir up the gifts He placed in us, for His glory, to advance His Kingdom...
