

The Midnight Lie (Paperback)

By Michael Palmer

Troubador Publishing, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is the story of the Newtown Murders. A story of sex and repression, rejection and hate. An intellectual thriller in the tradition of `The Name Of The Rose and `The Interpretation of Murder . Two gruesome murders occur at midnight, in the pouring rain, of a man and a woman. All the suspects have their motives, of lust and love, greed and revenge; but it proves hard for a famous detective to decide between a shady M.P., gangsters and prostitutes, between a celebrated philosopher and his wife. Somebody is lying. But who? Who is the monster hiding within this web of deceit? As the story unfolds, the lies mount up and the truth becomes even less certain. Motives begin to shift as we learn more about the victims. Then there are events and conversations which, as the reader looks back, take on an entirely different significance, now seen as containing clues, perhaps previously missed, towards the eventual unmasking of the murderer. All is finally revealed through the killer s own psychoanalysis, a story of sex and repression, rejection and hate. The Midnight Lie falls with...
