On these fair days of June scholars come as pilgrims to seats of learning, and youths go forth from them to assume the duties and responsibilities of men. Few spectacles in human life attract sympathies so genuine and universal. If our hearts are rightly attuned we cannot fail to enter into the spirit of occasions in which worldliness yields to primal instincts. The traveller, in a foreign city, pauses by the wayside as teachers and pupils celebrate some holiday with songs and banners, or children in white array go to their first communion, or bride and bridegroom, with the loving escort of kinsfolk and neighbors, enter the cathedral to receive the consecration of their vows. Speaking another language, and kneeling at other altars, they are for the time of his kindred and family, and he blesses them with a stranger s benediction.
