PROPERTY: PRIVILEGE, BETS AND KNOWLEDGE UTOPIAS

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Insights into property sub-market evolution in cities with knowledge economy aspirations | Property is a dual good and so provides both a variety of housing services and, sometimes, investment returns. Residential property price premiums are paid for a complex bundle of relative advantages, risks and opportunities within idiosyncratic, complex and evolving metropoli. However, factors beyond the urban footprint influence urban and hence premium evolution. Housing markets respond imperfectly to policy, resource endowments...
