It's Miss Corker's first day at her new school (in fact, it's her first day at any school) and she is looking forward to meeting her class. Leigh Hobbs turns his sharply observant eyes to the oddballs and misfits in Grade 4 in this absolutely hilarious illustrated story for 7-11 year olds. a world of barely contained anarchy, borderline menace and irresistible humour. It's reassuring to think that the truly anarchic tradition in children's literature is still being honoured Brisbane's Child, Sydney's Child. a perfect read for reluctant readers with a zany sense of humour Sunday Star Times. one of the most profound, moving and monumental children's books that has ever been written. This never-before-told story of grade 4F will change your life. A classroom of freaks is an inspired idea. allows his anarchic and outrageous funny drawings to carry the day. The Age. In magnificent, minimal sketches the pupils of 4F leap from the pen of Melbourne illustrator and author Leigh Hobbs and elbow...
