HarperCollins Publishers, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This novel, based on the groundbreaking BBC TV drama series, shows how it takes both guts and a sense of humour to become a part-time policeman. It was adapted by the series creators from all twelve episodes, four of which are published here for the first time. `You ll learn what it s like out there in the streets, and we ll learn whether you re competent to wear the uniform. From nine to five, they are like the rest of us. Come the twilight, they don the blue uniform with pride, and volunteer their spare time to share the night vigil of the Bobby on the beat. BOB LOACH, a partner in a coach tour business, is `all grease and few graces , with an ambition to be the first millionaire Special. ANJALI SHA is an NHS physiotherapist who treads the minefield of conflicting traditions: ` My family think it s a bad business for a well brought-up Hindu girl to prowls the streets at night with a man. JOHN REDWOOD is a solicitor with an unshakable belief in the decency of his fellow-man. VIV SMITH is a young bank clerk: ` It might come as a surprise to you, Sarge, but not all women come with a built-in maternal expertise of how to deal with kids. And FREDDY CALDER, an overweight salesman of ladies lingerie, conceals a shy and sentimental heart under a brash exterior. Five ordinary people whose commitment makes them extraordinary.
