

A Review of Ten Years: 1899-1909 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Mrs Samuel a Ammon

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from A Review of Ten Years: 1899-1909 Ten years ago the number of members recorded in the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution was twenty-seven thousand four hundred and thirty-two; this year the Registrar General records seventy-two thousand seven hundred and fifty seven, and a voting membership in the Eighteenth Continental Congress of one thousand, four hundred and eight; the actual membership being fifty-eight thousand and twenty-four. Ten years ago there seemed to be, in the National Society, three great objects of interest; the collection of funds for the proposed Memorial Hall, a Federal Law to prevent and punish the desecration of the Flag, and the amending of the Constitution and by-laws of the National Society. To a large majority a fourth interest seemed to be the defeat of Mrs. Donald McLean for the office of President General, an office for which many thought her to be peculiarly well fitted. At the end of ten years we have seen our dream - that which, for many years, seemed as if always to be our Castle of Air - become...
