Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Two Sermons; Preached at Carlisle, Mass., Sabbath, Aug; 4, 1850: In Commemoration of the Death of Mrs. E. E. H. Banister The statements of the bible accord with correct philosophy. When these pertain to ordinary errors of humanity, and to the evil deeds of the Wicked and their end, they are based upon truth. But the thoughts and emotions thence arising are painful. The statements of that same volume respecting the righteous, their condition and prospects, are equally true. And the accompanying thoughts and emotions are delightful. They awaken joy among the godly on earth and in heaven. This blessed company, sustained by the grace of God, may not always be properly appreciated, while living. But however highly regarded while on earth, when they depart hence, people generally will learn how to value them more fully, by the loss of their immediate labors and influence. And in advancing ages, as true religion is extended, and men are led to reason more accurately and to appreciate godliness aright, all the truly righteous will be viewed by men much as God regards them. This is the view of them now presented in the bible. Hereafter, we hope, the thoughts of men while living will be more like God's thoughts. Then many now obscure christians will be more highly valued, and they will be sought after more for their influence and exalted destiny. Then too, those who are living godly in Christ Jesus, will be more holy and more worthy of remembrance. These will understand more fully what characteristics of mind and heart are most pleasing to the Lord, and such as he would have them appreciate and cultivate. Others will...
