

Seeking The Cool Side of the Pillow A Wayward Youths Awakening

By Nicholas D. Newton

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 248 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. The Cool Side of the Pillow is a coming-of-age story that begins with my life among the aristocracy in Mexico, and concludes in a courtroom in El Paso, Texas. Arrested in Mexico City and after three months in prison, I am on the edge of my seat waiting to hear a judge decide my future. Mine was a life of privilege --My British father, a pilot during the First World War, and my beautiful mother are ill-matched, but they have forged a life together in a privileged society. I have no memory of the death of my first-born brother, but I recall vividly the day my younger brother Christopher, who was one year younger and my best friend, died at the age of four. Two weeks later, blaming incompetent doctors, our parents packed up my sister Billie, who was six years older, and me, and headed to Los Angeles. My sister figures out her life quite quickly, while I, on the other hand, become, in the words of one teacher, incorrigible. In my mind, I am the lonely, bright boy who struggles to form an identity as my parents...
